Becoming a Love and Logic Parent

Are you a normal, sometimes frustrated parent? We can help!

Children don't often come with owner's manuals. How then, do parents raise happy, self-sufficient individuals? To assist families with every day parenting challenges, Jewish Family Service and Woodhaven Counseling Associates, Inc. offer this unique program, Becoming a Love and Logic Parent.

The Love and Logic Process

Love and Logic is a philosophy of raising and teaching children which allows adults to be happier, empowered and more skilled in their interactions with children. Love allows children to grow through their mistakes. Logic allows children to live with the consequences of their choices. Love and Logic is a way of working with children that puts parents and teachers back in control, teaches children to be responsible and prepares young people to live in the real world, with its many choices and consequences.

Who can benefit from Love and Logic?

It's never too late for parents to begin using the Love and Logic techniques regardless of whether the family has a teenager or a toddler. No matter the age of the child, the best time to start Love and Logic is now!

Becoming a Love and Logic Parent

Meet the Instructors!

Teresa Drelicharz

L.M.H.P., R.P.T.

Ms. Drelicharz is a licensed mental health practitioner and registered play therapist. During her 10 years as a therapist, she has committed herself to the education, knowledge and experience of children's issues. She has become "sold" on the practicality of Love and Logic. Teresa is the mother of two children.

Amber Lawrence

L.M.H.P., L.M.F.T.

Ms. Lawrence, a licensed mental health practitioner and marriage and family therapist, will co-lead these parent-training courses. Amber works within a strength-based treatment context with children, adolescents, and their families. She uses Love and Logic parenting with her own two children.

As Parents, you will learn skills enabling you to:

- have happy, fun families
- deal with issues without resorting to anger, threats or power struggles
- raise tots that learn whining and arguing does not work
- gain the right mix of control with your teens
- discipline without losing their love
- use great comebacks all parents need to know
- have youngsters that grow to safe, smart, confident teens.
